COURSE TITLE: English Grammar

COURSE TEXT: Voyages in English 7, Loyola (1962 Edition), (T1007)
Voyages in English 7 Teacher's Manual, Loyola (1962 Edition), (T1007A) , optional

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course is designed to teach students to speak and write correctly and effectively. Students should progress, at this level, to an understanding of English grammar that should suffice for a lifetime of general usage.

The lesson plan concentrates on Part Two of the Voyages in English book, which is Grammar. The teaching of English should be cumulative. In Grade Seven the student will review what he learned in previous grades and build on it. As the material is introduced he will not remember everything he learned the previous year, but it will come more easily to him. Every year the student expands his knowledge and should not be confused or overwhelmed with the new information. Likewise, everything learned in English should be applied and reinforced in the student's reading, composition, spelling, and vocabulary. A dictionary is recommended for use in English.

On page 399-406 there are model diagrams. The student should diagram sentences in exercises as he proceeds through the work. Certain numbers of sentences have been assigned for diagramming, but you may use your discretion as to how many sentences should be diagrammed per day or week. If there is a question on how to diagram a particular kind of sentence, refer to the above-mentioned pages. There are many exercises in the back of the book following the Index that can be used if time permits.

Correcting one's mistakes is a good aid to remembering the information the next time one needs it; hence, it is recommended that the student correct all errors in his daily work with the explanation that this will help him later. Furthermore, the best way to teach English is by example and reinforcement of correct usage in the spoken and written word. The student should be expected to memorize many words and definitions in this book. The more he uses his memory, the better it is for him both now and in the future. The daily work should include memorization of fundamental rules of grammar.

Note that Part One of Voyages in English, which is Composition, is not used in this course. Composition is studied in Kolbe Academy's Vocabulary and Composition course using Sadlier-Oxford Composition Workshop series.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

1. To instill confidence in using grammatical rules according to the principles of:
 - ❖ imitation
 - ❖ repetition
 - ❖ emulation
 - ❖ memorization
2. To assist the student in applying rules of grammar to written and oral assignments.

3. To assist the student in applying spelling rules
4. To introduce diagramming skills to the student.

COURSE PLAN METHODOLOGY:

Kolbe Academy has worked diligently to create the best possible course plans with the home schooling family in mind. Remember, however, that our program is intended to be flexible. Per the principle of subsidiarity, these course plans are a suggested course of study. As the teacher, you should adapt and modify these course plans to meet the individual learning needs of your child. Do not feel obligated to follow these course plans exactly.

Voyages in English is represented by the abbreviation VOY. Each weekly assignment is summarized in the first line of the week's daily course plan. The specific daily assignments are outlined in the following lines indicated by the DAY 1, DAY 2, DAY 3, and DAY 4 abbreviations. Parent daily guidelines are given to the right of the student assignments. Most families will use Days 1-4 as a Monday through Thursday schooling schedule. This leaves Friday open for review, catch-up, field trips, or other activities. A family's schedule can and should vary as needed.

A weekly grade book is included at the end of the week's course plan as a convenience. It includes a cumulative list of written assignments from the week's course plan with point values given as a suggestion. Space for additional assignments, if needed, is included. Kolbe Academy does not require that you keep record of all student work. If you intend to report your child's work to Kolbe Academy for an official report card, only one sample of written and graded work is required per quarter for each course along with a report card submission. Parents should use the grade book only as a help to their home schooling and not as hindrance. Point values and weighting are suggested for convenience and may be modified, dropped completely, or added to as the parent deems fit. Please consult the welcome packet for a full tutorial on using the grade book.

This English Grammar course contains 36 weeks broken into four 9-week quarters. Week 8 is considered a review week and week 9 is dedicated strictly to examination. Your student may not need all of Week 8 for review. You can use this time to catch up if necessary and then go over the subject matter. If you intend to use the tests provided, look them over before teaching the subjects and make sure you teach the material in the tests.

Finally, begin every class with a prayer. This is a good way to help the child memorize new prayers. Repeat the same ones every day until they are known. Be sure to explain the meanings of the prayers. Repetition in all areas of study is most beneficial.
